Broward County launches BECCA program to deliver critical info for EMS
GSM Magazine
A new program, which was designed to help EMS responders obtain critical health information quickly during a medical crisis, has been implemented by the sheriff's office in Broward County, Fla. Named after 5-year-old Weston resident, Rebecca Hyman, the Broward Emergency Critical Care Assistance program was developed after her parents, Seth and Danielle, saw the need for quickly providing Becca's complex medical history to firefighter/paramedics during an emergency. A new approach to responder fitness
Fire Rescue 1
Bryan Fass writes, "When I entered the world of public safety more than 12 years ago there was a persona or a strut, call it a calm and cool street smart. As a young medic, it was something I envied yet did not fully understand, but it was something that I craved to have. Having grown up in a busy urban EMS system, I was taught and directed by a steady stream of wise and experienced paramedics, firefighters and EMTs." MORE

Aerial The LPU-40 is the specified retention collar used in the US Army's Air Warrior program. It attaches to vests and harnesses using the MOLLE system, and the outer casing is composed of durable fire retardant fabrics.	Alaris® System The Alaris® System is the most comprehensive IV medication safety system on the market—and the only smart integrated system that allows you to protect every infusion and every patient, every time. Hospitals have traditionally turned to different infusion pumps from a variety of manufacturers in an effort to protect infusions across care areas.	emsCharts While the focus of pre-hospital information management will always be the medical record, emergency care providers and managers have far broader needs. emsCharts provides an agency with a true Intranet – a website dedicated to improving the information management for an organization.

Fundraiser raises money for Mercy Flight services
MPNow.com
Paul Hyland, the CEO and founder of Mercy Flight Central, says one-third of Mercy Flight Central's critical care life-saving services budget comes from fundraising. And on Saturday night, members of the Mercy Flight team were joined by Legendary NASCAR team owner Richard Childress, vice president of community affairs for constellation brands Ginny Clark, and the Estrofest Comedy Troup for the 2011 Mercy Flight Central fundraiser, "Taste for the Race."
