The American Art Therapy Association's Institute for Continuing Education (ICE/AT) is available 24/7 and offers a robust catalog of courses from prominent and well-respected art therapists, researchers, authors, and educators. AATA's ICE/AT includes courses in Assessment, Multiculturalism, Ethics, Trauma, Supervision, Professional Practice, and so much more!

During AATA's 48th Annual Conference held this past November in Albuquerque, NM, more than 30 educational sessions were recorded, and 25 of those have now been converted into brand new online courses and added to the course catalog. Visit the campus directly here: <http://arttherapy.trainingcampus.net/>.

Members, remember that one of your benefits of membership is a 38% discount off the course prices. Follow this "My AATA" link <http://my.arttherapy.org/professional-development> and scroll down to the ICE/AT section where you will find the discount code. When paying for your courses online, be sure to enter the discount code, and click on the "apply discount" button to receive the member-discounted rate.
