

ASHI Volunteer Spotlight

Name & Credentials: Rami Mahfouz MD, MPH

Employment: American University of Beirut Medical Center

What committees do you serve on?
I serve on the Membership Committee.

How did you get started as a volunteer for ASHI?
I started as a volunteer for ASHI by responding to one of the volunteer ads.

How has volunteering for ASHI improved your professional development?
Volunteering has helped to improve my professional development in a remarkable way. I have made wonderful contacts and connections. I have received a great deal of support from senior mentors and have attended excellent meetings. When you volunteer, you become more attached and more involved with the society and you will do your best to not miss any ASHI Meetings.

What is your most memorable volunteer moment?
My most memorable volunteer moment was welcoming new junior members at the new member reception hosted at the ASHI Annual Meeting. There was a nice spirit of collegiality.

Why do you think it is important for others to volunteer with ASHI?
Because once they try it, they will never regret it!
