

Evolution, Re-invention or Revolution:
The Future of Special Education
CASE Winter Hybrid Conference
February 13-15, 2013

Daily Onsite Schedule + Virtual Schedule per day
8:00am	Breakfast at conference
9:00am	Live Townhall for Orlando participants led by local experts on the topic (e.g. Jeff Jacobson, the ESE Specialist Manager, FL Virtual School)
10:30am	Break, Visit Vendors/Virtual Exhibit Hall and transition
12:30pm	Box Lunch Facilitated National conversation
1:00pm	Break, Visit Vendors/Virtual Exhibit Hall and transition
3:15pm	Break, Visit Vendors/Virtual Exhibit Hall and transition
4:30pm	National Townhall for all participants Discussions about urgent and strategic issues related to special education administration
Wednesday Virtual Education and implications for Special Education
11:00pm	The State of Virtual Learning for students with disabilities: Can we be cool and effective? Matt Wicks from (INACOL)
1:45pm	Virtual Learning: Confronting the legal issues. What is LRE in a virtual high school? Bennett Rodick (on site) and Virtual Panel
3:30pm	National conversation on Virtual Learning: How should we include virtual learning in the continuum of services? An example: class.com Andy Morrison
Thursday The Re-invention of Special Education
11:00 am	Rtl to MTSS: Integrating Academics and Behavior to achieve a sustainable MTSS George Batsche and USF Colleague on behavior
1:45 pm	Rtl to MTSS: Lessons from initiatives in four districts: LAUSD, Portland, Long Beach, and Wichita Judy Elliott and Neil Guthrie, Wichita, KS
3:30pm	National conversation on Rtl/MTSS: Implications for school accountability and students with disabilities Batsche, Elliott, and Guthrie
Friday The Evolution of Special Education
11:00am	Special Ed Re-Invented: We had better invent the future before it is dumped on us! Steve Kukic and Bob Pasternack
1:45pm	Extended conversation with the Director of OSEP Melody Musgrove (INVITED) moderated by Bob Pasternack
3:30pm	Where are we? Where have we been? Where are going? Why are our in school and transition outcomes so chronically dismal?: Musings from two former Assistant Secretaries of Education Bob Pasternack and Alexa Posny , former Directors of OSEP(INVITED)
4:30pm	National Townhall for all participants Discussions about urgent and strategic issues related to special education administration

Go to <http://casecec.org/> for more information