

New Year, New World Job Bank!

The NAPR Board of Directors is thrilled to announce that the World Job Bank (WJB) is undergoing a complete redesign! The WJB is a forum for physicians and advanced practitioners (nurse practitioners, physician assistants and nurse-midwives) provide their background information, CVs and practice preferences. Recruiters with corresponding perm opportunities communicate directly with the provider to discuss the details of the position and next steps.

In 2015, the WJB logged more than 30,000 registered providers in which NAPR recruiters assisted many of these physicians and advanced practitioners secure perm positions throughout the Continental United States. Over the last year, the WJB has grown by 19 percent with an anticipated increase in registrants in the new year as a result of the new NAPR website traffic and scheduled NAPR targeted initiatives to attract candidates to the site. WJB member benefit include no additional cost to post advanced practitioner perm openings and FREE job bulk uploads!

If your recruitment team is seeking a new resource in 2016, check out the NAPR physician and advanced practitioner job board.
