

Many of you have worked with and known Sam for many years. After more than 63 years in bail, he has decided to retire. His last day was today Wednesday, May 8th. Please wish him well.

A Roche Fixture Retires

Sam Marcadis, one of the oldest licensed Bail Agents in Florida, has decided to give up his "Powers". Sam started working at his father's bail agency, Abe's Bail Bonds, in 1950. He ran Abe's with his brother until 1997 when they decided to close the agency and retire.

After 47 years of the rigorous bail bond pace, boredom set in quickly after retirement. So in 1998, Sam went to his friend Armando Roche to inquire about working for Roche Surety and Casualty for "awhile". He's been an outstanding member of the Roche team for the last 15 years!

Sam we wish you well and all the best!
It's been an honor to know you, work with you, and most importantly be your friend!
