

ANXIETY AND DEPRESSION
CONFERENCE
APRIL 9-12, 2015 MIAMI, FLORIDA

translating | innovating
RESEARCH | PRACTICE

Share it together... Learn it together... Change it together.

The sun is brighter in Miami. Join us there April 9-12 for the 2015 ADAA annual conference: Anxiety and Depression: Translating Research, Innovating Practice.

This conference is the professional hub for clinicians and researchers in the field of anxiety and depression, and related disorders who want to share, learn, innovate, and advance the field in meaningful ways.

Why come? Because this is truly a unique space. Here you will share research and clinical experiences, help translate ideas, learn new practice strategies and techniques, connect with leaders in the field to build your network, hone your skills, and get inspired. Register today.

ADAA professional members receive an extra $50 discount off the early registration fee by registering on or before October 31. Register today.

Join ADAA now. Did you know?

- Members do not pay an additional fee for continuing education credits. It is included in your registration fee and saves you up to $100 compared with similar meetings.
- No additional fees are charged for Master Clinician Sessions.
- Members enjoy a significant discount on the registration fee for the Preconference Workshop with Reid Wilson on Thursday, April 9.
- Member registration includes Welcome Reception, daily breakfast, and daily coffee breaks.