

LEAH C GARDNER
CUSTOMER VICE PRESIDENT
KRAFT FOODS GROUP, INC

Leah Gardner was appointed Customer Vice President of Kraft Foods Worldwide Military Sales in June of 2013. She leads a team of 149 sales professionals completely dedicated to DeCA and the Exchange Network.

Leah has been very active with the ALA since coming to the Military business in 2011. She has served on the Promotions and Operations committee as well as Commissary Council. Her most recent position was as Chairperson for the 2014 ALA/DeCA Commissary Roundtable.

During Leah's career, she has been served many roles in the Retail segment and has relocated 9 times and managed many customer relationships including Kroger, Food Lion, and Walmart. These experiences have provided a wealth of knowledge that has allowed her to learn to serve the most deserving customer in the world in her current position – our US Military.

Leah is an alumnus of the University of Mississippi and currently resides in Richmond, VA with her husband, Mike, and their two children, Taylor (10), and Mary Margaret (7).
