

1. Understand the limitations related to various alternatives for cell block preparation
2. Know factors leading to interference due to fixation and processing associated issues
3. Approaches to overcome various causes responsible for suboptimal cell blocks and related tests including IHC evaluation with special simple approaches such as SCP