

1. To understand what is currently possible with modern methods of cervico- vaginal cancer screening
2. To understand the current “real life” performance and contribution of high risk HPV testing
3. To understand why co-testing is best for our patients