ASPiH Annual Conference 2016 Scheduled for November 2016

Forwarded by Carrie Bohnert, University of Louisville

Carrie suggested we provide a heads up and the link to the Association for Simulated Practice in Healthcare (ASPiH) annual meeting in Bristol, UK from 15-17 November 2016. The conference theme is “Celebrate Excellence in Simulated Practice” and is the premier conference for simulation in Europe. A link is provided below providing information, but the main point is that the deadline for abstract submission is May 30, 2016, so still time to submit something if interested.
