

Webinars Available in the ASPE Virtual Learning Center

By Connie Coralli, Emory University

Now that the Virtual Learning Center is up and operating again check out the wide variety of ASPE Webinars available on the ASPE Website for your professional development.

<http://www.aspeducators.org/>

There is an amazing amount of excellent information here from leading experts and novices alike. Enjoy and learn!

Currently Available Webinars:

From Emotions to Techniques – Training SPs and Faculty to Integrate Tools of Varying Objectivity During Feedback/Debriefing

Groundwork for Building a Standardized Patient Program

Finding (and Keeping) the Best SPs

Developing Rubrics for Grading Student Notes

Using SPs as Stage Managers

How to Screen and Hire Gynecological Male Urological Teaching Associates (GTA_MUTA)

Providing Feedback on Paraverbal Behaviors

2010 ASPE Project/Research Award Information & Tips for Prospective Applicants

Cultural Competence in Clinician Communication

Advanced Verbal Feedback by Standardized Patients for Students

Assessment of Faculty Teaching Skills

Mentoring and Advising Association of Standardized Patient Educators Membership Committee

Beyond Hands On Teaching Utilizing GTAS For End of Clerkship Clinical Skills Assessments. Tradition and Innovation.

Writing Abstracts about Educational Work

Establishing a Common Language for SP Educators

ASPE GTA/MUTA Special Interest Group - Projects, Accomplishments, Success!

How to Use Your SPs as Trainers (Case Specialists)

Intro to Hybrid Simulation – Getting Started

Military Moulage - Boot Camp

A Practical Guide to Poster Presentations

ASPE Sneak Peak 2010

ASPE Sneak Peak 2010 Part 2

SP Methodology Across Professions

An Interdisciplinary Approach To Physical Therapy Education In Acute Care Using Standardized Patients And Human Patient Simulators

Pharmacy Use of Standardized Participants

The Benefits of Joining an ASPE Committee

Understanding & Addressing Low Health Literacy

A Tutorial on ASPE's Virtual Office Space for ASPE Committee Members

A Tutorial on ASPE's Virtual Office Space for ASPE Committee Members Part 2