

Focus to be on Pain Management for September 9th KSA

KAFP

The American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM) has changed the SAM name and format from SAM (Self-Assessment Module) to KSA (Knowledge Self-Assessment) and the Clinical Simulation portion will be renamed Clinical Self-Assessment. KAFP is pleased to offer its first KSA Group Learning Session on September 9.

By attending this session, you can easily fulfill the Knowledge Self-Assessment (KSA) with this half a day session on pain management that simplifies the ABFM's Family Medicine Certification requirement for Self-Assessment Activities, previously known as Part II modules, and understand pain management, including legal/psychosocial aspects and pharmacologic treatment.
