2014 AAFP Family Medicine Global Health Workshop

Practicing physicians, faculty, residents, and students with an interest or experience in international activities/global health are encouraged to submit abstracts for poster, peer and concept presentation sessions at the 2014 AAFP Family Medicine Global Health Workshop. The theme of this year’s workshop is “The Changing Landscape of Global Family Medicine”.

The workshop, scheduled September 11-13 in San Diego, CA, is a great opportunity to network with global health experts and peers with similar interests. Submit your abstract by May 15, 2014. Health professionals beyond the specialty of family medicine are also welcome to submit abstracts.

Register before June 30 to receive the early bird registration fee. For more information visit www.aafp.org/intl/workshop.

For more information about exhibiting at the workshop, or if you have questions, contact Alex Ivanov, AAFP International Activities Manager, at aivanov@afp.org or ext. 4510.”
