

NABE's Dual Language Professional Development Program

District Discount - Bundle and Save!

NABE is the ONLY association at this time that stands behind a recognized Dual Language credential, providing it with an unparalleled status. Whether your program is in its planning stage or early years, is an established strand or program, or simply needs a refresher to build capacity, NABE's digital badges help lay the foundation with best practices and research that will support administrators and teachers.

See what your colleagues are saying about NABE's Dual Language Professional Development Program

"As the Dual Language Coordinator of one of Chicago's largest public schools, these modules were the missing piece to our DLE program we have been implementing. The breakdown of the modules and their content were perfect!"

~ Maria Rivera, Chicago Public Schools

We all know that teacher recruitment for dual language programs is one of the most difficult barriers to a successful program...this whole module contained very useful information and ideas in how to recruit qualified dual language educators.

~ Laura Pantin, Broward County Public Schools

These modules can be completed independently, facilitated by the school leader in a group setting with Instructional Leaders or administrators, or they can be facilitated by NABE as a professional development course for an entire faculty. Additional learning pathways that meet the professional needs of your school or district can also be developed by contacting NABE at nabe.pd@nabe.org

NABE DUAL LANGUAGE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM DIGITAL BADGES

How does NABE's digital badge differ from traditional professional development?

NABE has defined competencies that Dual Language Immersion teachers and administrators need in order to be successful in the implementation of the program. Each module is a targeted module of professional learning, created by experts in the field and follows a strategic microcredential pathway. Modules are meant to specifically address the needs of educators and ensure the academic and social success of English Learners.

Badge 1: The Three Core Goals of a Dual Language Program

Objective: Identify the three core goals of a dual language program: bilingualism and biliteracy, academic proficiency in both program languages, and socio-cultural competency and how to align your program to meet these goals.

Module 1: Understanding Three Core Goals of Dual Language Programs

Module 2: Promoting the Core Goal of Bilingualism and Biliteracy

Module 3: Promoting the Core Goal of Socio-Cultural Competence

Badge 2: Program Design: Ensuring Fidelity to the Program

Objective: Design an effective and sustainable two-way immersion Dual Language program by focusing on best practices for recruitment and delving into research that ensures linguistic equity through scheduling and schoolwide language policies.

Module 1: Scheduling that Ensures Linguistic Equity

Module 2: Recruiting: Ensuring Staff Quality

Module 3: Building Schoolwide Language Policies

Badge 3: Instruction in a Two-Way Immersion Program

Objective: Examine the ways in which instruction in a dual language program addresses the goals of bilingualism, biliteracy, and sociocultural competence through academics and language.

Module 1: Instructional Practices that are Student-Centered and Equitable

Module 2: Integrating Technology to Deepen and Enhance Learning

Module 3: Assessment Practices to Support Program Goals

Badge 4: The Goal of Biliteracy

Objective: Understand what elements and practices need to be in place in a dual language program in order to provide an environment that encourages cross-linguistic awareness and ensures academic achievement in two languages.

Module 1: Selecting High Quality, Standards-Based Curriculum

Module 2: Teaching for Biliteracy: Effective Instructional Strategies

Module 3: Fostering Cross-linguistic Connections
