Military Settlers

Saturday, October 3

9:30 to 4:30 (Doors open at 8:30)

Northminster United Church

Military pensioners were an important part of the settlement of Ontario. We will examine why, look at three of the schemes, and show what records to search.

1 Political and Military Situation in the UK and Canada 1814-1850

Timothy Dubé was Military Archivist for the Public Archives of Canada / National Archives of Canada / Library and Archives Canada (1984-2012).

2 Lanark Society Settlers 1820-21

Rick Roberts' passion for genealogy and history led to the founding of Global Genealogy. Rick is especially interested in the historical events that influenced the lives of his ancestors. What pushed them to make the decisions they made... and what pulled them to the lives that they led.

3 Commuted Pensioner Scheme 1831-32

Dennis Carter-Edwards, retired military historian with Parks Canada, past president of the Ontario Historical Society, current chair of the City of Peterborough Arts, Culture, and Heritage Advisory Committee.

4 Enrolled Pensioner Scheme 1851-58

5 Useful Records for Military Settlers

Ron Dale retired from Parks Canada after a 38 year career as the Manager for the Agency's War of 1812 commemorations and prior to that was the Superintendent of Niagara National Historic Sites, a complex of historic places including Fort George and Brock's Monument.
